CITY NEWS

The will of Augustus Goodrich, late of Stirring Up and Stimulating in the Mr. and Mrs. Peter Chastenay of 95 Lafountain street are the parents of a

In probate court Thursday Martin S. Vilan was appointed executor of the will of Ellen H. Vilas, late of this city.

W. M. McKenzie has received word that his brother, Capt. W. F. McKensie, M. D., has arrived safely in France.

The will of Horace L. Bundy, late of Hartford, Conn., was allowed in probate court Thursday by Judge J. H. Macom-

The steamer Ticonderoga made the first trip of the season to Plattsburgh and return yesterday, opening navigation for

Mira E. Van Vilet of Shelburne was appointed administratrix of the estate of Cyrus P. Van Vliet, late of Shelburne,

The Vermont State Federation of Women's Clubs is to meet in this city on June 4, 5 and 6. The convention is to be held at the First Church.

A daughter, Mary Virginia, was born Tuesday to Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Y. Handy of Springfield, Vt. Mrs. Handy was formerly Miss J. Mae Collins. Cards are out announcing the marriage commissioners and appraisers in the estate of Ellen M. Vilas, late of this J. L. Southwick and E. C. Mower were Hartford, Conn., in probate court Fri-Hollis E. Gray, county chairman, re ported Friday evening that Colchester had exceeded its quota, which was $5,100 in the third Liberty Loan, having subscribed Louis Greenough, who has been an inmate of the poor farm for several years, is dead at the age of 65 years. He lied Wednesday night. Mr. Greenough was originally a Canadian. District Attorney Vernon A. Bullard of Grand Army of the Republic. Harrison A. Cooke, for several years with the Queen City Cotton company, has position as clerk at the Chittenden County Trust company, beginning his

Shepard Saturday evening, April 27, at eight o'clock by the Rev. C. J. Staples. In probate court Friday Carlos D.

The local board of exemption sent Benjamin H. Douglass of Richmond to Camp Devens yesterday. The registrant, who was self-inducted into the service, will join the medical depot at that canton-

At a meeting of the fire commissioners Thursday night, F. E. Perkins, who was recently re-elected commissioner, was made chairman of the commission for the ensuing year. Carl D. Stockwell, chief of the fire department, was appointed clerk.

George P. Corbett of Underhill was appointed administrator of the estate of William Corbett, late of Underhill, in probate court Monday, with William Barrett and Arthur Cavanaugh of the same place as commissioners and appraisers.

Friends of Chester Kirby of Willis ton, who went to Washington, D. C., a that he has been transferred from the depot quartermaster in the war depart-

Miss Mona Keniston of 65 North Wincoski avenue, who was operated on Monday at the Mary Fletcher hospital, is resting comfortably. Miss Keniston was a proof reader in the publishing department of the Free Press until compelled to give up be-

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Tracy have returned from New York, where they went to see their son, James Lee Tracy, previous to his departure for "over there." The young a corporal of Company B, of the Fourth United States Engineers, recently stationed at Camp Greene, N. C.

Alderman Edward B. Besette, who was badly burned in the fire at the Chocolate company's plant last Thursday evening is slowly improving at the Mary Flet cher hospital. Mr. Besette is still obliged to remain in bed and probably will be kept at the hospital for several

John H. Mimms, as solicitor for the Robair Bros., Moses and Wallace, en-tered a suit in chancery Tuesday against Elmer E. Root to recover the sum of $165, which it is alleged the defendant has refused to pay for material furnished and labor used at his home, 6

Seed testing, especially of corn to b planted, which was done in the public schools of the county last week, showed that the seed was very poor and that the germination was of a very low percentage Many of the farmers have tested their seed and thus found it wanting and have got new seed in time to have it planted

In Chittenden county court Tuesday afternoon the case of Hyman Glad-stone vs. Mitchel Benoit et al. was heard chancery with Stanley C. Wilson as master of chancery. No decision was made. Judge Hamilton S. Peck appeared for the dependants and J. J. Enright Sherman R. Moulton appeared for Next Friday night the members o Stannard Post, G. A. R., are to meet in their hall on Church street and make arrangements for the observance of Memorial day. The orator of the day is Warren R. Austin of this city, for merly of St. Albans. On the Sunday evening preceding Memorial day the mem will attend church in a body.

Mr. and Mrs. James Matthews of 549 South Champlain street have received s letter from their sons, Edward and Napo leon, telling of their safe arrival over seas with the Second Cavalry. The for-mer was employed in the Free Press bindery department and the latter by listed at Fort Ethan Allen June 6 of last

At a meeting of the board of charities Thursday afternoon Dr. P. E. McSweeney, ho was recently re-elected to the con mision, was made chairman of the b Other business of the board included the appointment of C. H. Harrington and T. A. Delany to their present position for the ensuing year, those of super-intendent of the poor farm and oversees Byron N. Clark, State Y. M. C. A retary, who has spent seven months in as-York Monday, according to a telegram has been in charge of the State office in during Mr. Clark's absent d. Mr. Clark will go to Lebanon, N. H., to visit his mother for a few days before coming to Burlington.

The annual meeting of the Chittenden County Dental society was held Thursday at the New Sherwood. A banquet as served at 6:30, the meeting following.

YOUR LIVER NEEDS

Its sluggish lack of vigor is a large factor in causing the duliness, depres-sion and weakness that hang on to you like lead in your shoes from morning till

Hodd's Pills are the best liver stimulant and family cathartic .- best because they do their work well and do not de-plete the blood like purgative salts and waters, which often leave a woful train of catharral discharge that are unnatural and weakening. Then you may get the splendid bloodenriching qualities of Hood's Sarsapa-rilla and the iron-building effects of Peptiron into the combination, and the three medicines working together give the grandest health-uplift it is possible to have from medicine.

Any one of the three medicines will do you goodthe use of all three will accomplish wonderful results for you. Try this treatment this Spring .- adv.

The following officers were elected: President, Dr. J. E. Taggart; vice-president, Dr. G. D. Samson; secretary and treasurer, Dr. O. S. Nime An address was given by Dr. E. E. Johnson, the director of the rural dental clinics in Three men were secured by the local navy recruiting force yesterday at the station in the postoffice building. They were Harry E. McCratten of Montpeller, Clarence H. O'Connell of Cadyville, N. Y., and Guy W. Rodey of Derby Line. The Montpoller man is to be retained Williams and E. S. Adsit were appointed for some time at this station, where he will do work connected with the drive for recruits that is now in progress.

Organization of the street commissioners was perfected at the city market building appointed commissioners and appraisers last week by electing Frank S. Lanou in the estate of Horace L. Bundy, late of chairman of the commission. J. L. Bergeron was the newly-elected commissioner to take up his duties. The third nember of the commission is Charles L. Dolan. The first-official act of the new commission was to re-elect John W. Coffey, the present incumbent, superintendent of streets.

L. S. Barrett of Shelburne harbor has received word from the war department that his son, Robert J., who is well known in Burlington, has been wounded in France. The young man, who is 21 years old, enlisted from Connecticut in the field artil-lery seven months ago and at Christmas Burlington is to be the Memorial day time went to France. The last letter was received from him two weeks ago, saying e was well. The despatch from Wash ington says that he was wounded a week

Floyd S. Thomas of this city enlisted n the navy Monday as a seaman, secnd class. Seaman Thomas, whose home is on St. Paul street, has been employed at the Wells & Richardson Co. plant. He is to be held here at present by Ensign J. W. Crosley for duty at the local recruiting station until the present drive for men to enter the service of the navy has been completed. He will then be sent to the naval station at Pelham Bay, N. Y.

Acting President George H. Perkins of the University of Vermont returned Mon-day from New York city, where he attended the meeting of the New York Alumni association. He also attended the meeting of the Philadelphia Alumni association while he was away. This asof the class of '85, president. They also voted to pay the tuition of a student at the college for four years by buying a $500

At the meeting of the water commis ioners in the department's office Friday afternoon, organization was perfected of the board. The newly-elected water absent because of burns suffered at the fire at the Chocolate company's plant Thursday night. J. Frank Kidder, the present incumbent, was elected by the commissioners superintendent of the partment for the ensuing year.

Mrs. Carrie M. Larned of $2 Church son, Daniel F. Larned, had been decorated with the croix de guerre by the French for bravery on the field. Young Larned, who served at the border with the Second Connecticut, volunteered to go out into 'No Man's Land' and bring back vounded, although there was a heavy barrage fire. He was badly gassed. A The family formerly lived in Bolton.

Eight hundred dollars is the sum of money the Citizen's bank of Lexington, Tenn., is suing to recover from the firm of Campbell & Daniell, local druggists. whose place of business is at 139 St. Paul street. It is an alleged indebtedness on three promissory notes. The case, which was entered at the county clerk's office up at the September term of county court. Deputy Sheriff Henry Todd has attached the stock, fixtures and furniture of the

Wallace H. Coburn of Belvidere, John E. Fitspatrick of St. Albans, James McIntosh of Barre and Roy R. Farnsworth of Middlesex successfully passed the medical examination given by Dr C. H. Cecha for admittance into the naval reserve service Tuesday at local recruiting station. They were later given the oath by Ensign J. W. Crosley, the local commandant of the station. Another recruit was Alexander S. Downers of Barre. He enlisted in the Manager John Harding of the Hotels Vermont and Van Ness received word Tuesday that his son, John Phelps Harding, of Saranac Lake, N. Y., had been commissioned a second lieutenant abroad. Lieutenant Harding is a graduate of Cornell, in the claus of 1916. He enlisted in the marines many months ago and was sent to Paris Island, South Carolina. From there he was, inter transferred to the officers' training camp at Camp Upton, Yaphank, L. I, and we but recently sent abroad.

Ensign J. W. Crosley enlisted into the nation's first line of defense Saturday four of five young men from North Wal-pole, N. H. The fifth member of the contingent from that place was unable to pass the medical examination of the naval surgeon, Dr. C. H. Cecha. young men who were taken into the service were G. M. Wieber, E. J. Owens. Joseph Gallagher and K. J. Owens. Two others to be enlisted were Eldon D. Westover of Waterville and M. B. Smith of Springfield. Sixteen men were examined during the day, The United States civil service commi sion announces an open competitive ex-amination for teachers, both men and women, to fill existing vacancies in the positions of teacher and supervising eacher, and future vacancies requiring imilar qualifications, for duty in the Philippine Islands. Entrance salaries for receiving an appointment are from those receiving an appointment are trong $1,000 to $1,500 a year. They are engible for promotion up to $2,000 as supervisors or teachers. Information concerning this examination can be obtained of D. J.

Casey, secretary of the local examiners. Morris R. Wilcox, who has been phy-sical director of the University of Vermont for about a year, has resigned, the resignation taking effect yesterday. Director Wilcox will respond to the call of the colors on May 9 in the Heavy Artillery at Port Howard, Maryland. He enlisted at Washington, D. C., about tan days ago. He is 25 years of age, was born in Georgeville, Canada, and has been a resident of Burlington for about six years. He was graduated from the university in 1916. His successor at the university has not been appointed.

The marriage of Miss Dorothy Drew. daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Drew. and Sergeant Harry Allen, the son of the late George Allen of this city, took place Cliff street, the Rev. George W. Daven-port officiating. They left at eleven o'clock for Camp Wadsworth, S. C., where Mr. Allen will await his commission as lieutenant. The wedding was to have taken place Saturday, but Mr. Allen received orders to report at once to his regiment. The ceremony was witnessed by a small company of relatives and Judge J. H. Macomber ordered Edward Gonyeau of the northern part of the city committed to the hospital for the insane at Waterbury Monday afternoon, at the probate court. Many of the city officials were present, as well as State's Attorney Martin, who on the 19th day of April charged Gonyeau with arson said charge arising from two fires that broke out mysteriously previous to Gon-yeau's arrest. Gonveau has been confined in the county jan since the day of his arrest, April E. He will be taken to Waterbury by Overseer of the Poor T. A.

Seventy-four men were examined by Dr. C. H. Cecha, the surgeon at the navy recruiting station during the last week, which closes at navy stations on Thurs day. Those taken into the service Fit-day by Ensign J. W. Crosley, the local commandant, number four, three of whom went that night to Pelham Bay, N. Y., the other to the training station at Newport, R. I. They are William P. Baker John R. Stockwell and Howard L. Bashaw, all of Brattleboro, and Raymond G. Dolan of Windsor, The trio from Bratticboro enlisted as seamen, second class, and Dolan as a machinist's mate.

The will of Thomas Mongeon, late of Winooski, was proved in probate court yesterday. John Stuart of South Burlington was appointed administrator of the estate of David Upton, late of this city. H. H. Wheeler of South Burlington and Fred C. Fiske of this city were apthis estate. David Upton was the watchman who lost his life last Thursday night in the fire that destroyed the chocolate plant. Arsene Boucher was chocolate plant. Arsene Boucher was appointed administrator of the estate of C. P. Dion and A. N. Lucia commissioners

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Holden of 257 South Union street have returned to Burlington after an absence of six months, passed in Washington, D. C., Chillicothe, Ohio, where their son, Lieut.-Col. George J. Holden was in command of the machigun battalions of the 83rd division of the national army, and the balance of the time at Orlando, Florida, Mrs. Holden returned by rail, while Mr. Holden drove from Washington in his automobile, mak ing the trip in three days. Col. Holden has been selected to command the fourth officers' training school, which opens at Camp Sherman, Chillicothe, Ohio, May 15, and at which about 800 students are Sympathy is quite generally expresses about town for the family of Perrault Companion of Lakeside, who lost his life in the fire at the plant of the Chocolate company Thursday night, Mr. Companion s survived by a wife and seven children. the youngest of whom is but two years of age, while the eldest is 14. David Upton, another employe who lost his life, is survived by a mother, who lives in the vicinity of St. Anthony's Church, All three men who lost their lives, John Crowle; of Monroe street, Companion and Upton, were covered by the workmen's compensa tion law, and their relatives will receive compensation in varying amounts, ac-Martin S. Vilas returned to this city

Monday from Craftsbury, the home town of Governor Horace F Graham, where he spoke Sunday evening with Governor Graham at a Liberty Loan rally under invitation of the Men's club. Mr. Vilas spoke Saturday evening in Eden in walking on Sunday the nine miles from received word Tuesday that her Eden Mills to North Craftsbury Mr. Vilas found the highway still coated in many places with snow and ice. On the north side of the high ridge between these two places he also found the road in severa places still blocked with snow drifts which yet lie piled for many rods to the depth of three or four feet, causing the traffic to make a detour through fields, as has been necessary for a number of months.

> A pretty dancing exhibition was given children on Saturday afternoon at the roof garden of Hotel Vermont by the Navy League and the Burlington branch of the Red Cross, which resulted in the raising of $35. There was no expense so the profit was clear. The affair opened with a patriotic march by 92 children each carrying an American flag. Miss Caro Kingsland's private dancing pupils twelve in number, appeared in a pleasing exhibition. Gwendolyn smith gave an interpretative dance entitled "The Spirit nmer," while Hilda Graves gave a dainty solo dance entitled "Poppies. Music was furnished by Mrs. Esther Tassie at the piano, and C. Markoff on Miss Marjorie Cota, Miss Margaret Little and Miss Lucinda Smith served lemonade.

Among the board of five medical officers appointed last week at Camp Wadsworth. Spartanburg, S. C., by Brig.-Gen. Guy Carleton, commanding the provisional depot for corps and army troops, to examine into the capacity, qualifications conduct and efficiency of any commisof the University of Vermont college of members comprising the board are: Major Alfred Moss, signal corps, U. S. A., Major Charles H. Rich, quartermaster corps, U. S. A., Capt. William Bowman, quartermaster reserve corps, and First Lieutenant Thomas P. McLendon. Dr. Ciminera, whose home was in Waterbury, Conn., previous to his marriage in this city last October to Miss Cetherine Francis Powers of Loomis street, enlisted in the army last fall.

Another chapter in the famous divorce suit of John Deyette against Mrs. Deyette of Burlington, which has been to the Supreme Court of Vermont, was enacted in Chittenden county court yes-terday morning when Mrs. Deyette appeared. Mr. Deyette appeared before the court on April 13 and asked for and obtained a temporary injunction restraining Mrs. Deyette from taking the child over whom the contest is being waged. Yesterday Deyette, through Attorneys Rufus E. Brown and A. L. Sherman, appeared with a motion to dismiss the injunction given to Mr. Deyette and for a hearing on a petition which she had filed asking that he court modify the order of Judges Waterman and Butler, superior judges The court dissolved the injunction given to Mr. Deyette, but declined to act on the petition for modifying of the order of the superior judges until the September term. Mr. Deyette was represented by Vernon A. Bullard and John J. Enright. The officers of Temple Chapter, No. 75. Order of the Eastern Star, who were elected at the annual meeting April 16, were installed Thursday, the installing officer being the past matron, Mrs. W. H.

Collins, assisted by Past Patron C. J.

Broadbent as marshal. These are the officer: Worthy matron, Mrs. Olive Drew; worthy patron, C. H. Harrington; associate matron, Mrs Carrie Walker; secretary, Miss Miriam Baylies; treasurer, Mrs. Ida Reynolds; conductress, Mrs. Etta Hough; associate conductress, Mrs. Estella Donoway; chaplain, Mrs. Clara Norton; marshal, Mrs. Mary Jones; organist, Mrs. Ella Pitts; Adah, Mrs.

Lena Jones; Ruth, Mrs. Anna Herberg; Esther, Mrs. Ruth Frazier; Martha, Miss Ardell Towne; Electa, Miss Freda Jones; warder, Miss Roxanna Brownell; sentinel, P. T. Roby. Floral stars were presented to the incoming matrons, and Mrs. Collins. and Mr. Broadbent, the retiring matron and patron, presented the chapter with pictures of Washington and Lincoln. The first meeting of the Missionary

Gulld of the Methodist Church in the new conference year was held Monday evening, with 82 present. A supper was served at 6:30 o'clock, after which the business meeting was held. The fol ing officers being elected: President, Miss Arletta Shinvfille; first vice-president, Mrs. J. H. Dodds; second, Mrs. F. O. Sinciair; third, Mrs. A. L. Walker; fourth, Miss Lillian Bixby; recording secretary, Miss Helen G. Hendee; corresponding secretary, Miss Louise Russell; treasurer, Mrs. Eda Safford; assistant, Mrs. Isabel Spofford; pianist, Hazel Cole. There is a total membership of 114., 50 of whom are new members taken in last evening. That means $114 turned over entirely to missionary work. The Guild has a Korean scholarship of $35 and one in Porto Rico of $35. Inasmuch as there is to be a surus it was voted to give $20 to war work. half to French relief and half to the work n the cantonments in this country. A the feature of which was the presentation entitled "Packing the Missionary Barrel."

UNIVERSITY NOTES.

The last meeting of St. Hilda's Guild for this year was held Sunday afternoon in St. Paul's parish house. The following officers for the ensuing year were elected: President, Marion Jones '19; secretary-treasurer. Pearl Snodgrass '20; chairman of executive board. Mary Wilkinson, '19; executive board, Julia Wheeler '19, Eleanor Davenport

An important business meeting of the Dramatic club was held Thursday afternoon, the chief business consisting of the election of the officers for next year. The following were elected: President, B. E. Greene '21; vice-presi-dent, Miss Marjorie Young '20; secretary, L. D. Nelson '20; treasurer, W. P. Davenport '21.

At a meeting of the Woman's Athletic association Thursday afternoon at Grassmount the following officers for the O. F. year were elected: President, Edith Scribner, '19; vice-president, Louise Lawton, '20; treasurer, Erald Benson, '20; secretary, Marjorie Scott, '20; executive board, Margaret Patten, '19, Mildred Powell, '20, Helen Stiles, '21, Florence Cumnings, '19, gave her report as the annual delegate to the women's intercolegiate conference recently held at Wheaton.

At a recent meeting of the athletic ouncil it was decided to award only five letters for varsity basketball. The following men will receive "V" sweaters: Capt W. L. Hammond, '20, Manager P. S. Hayden, '18, H. A. Merrill, '19, G. A. Blood,

114th COMMENCEMENT

Of the University of Vermont and State Agricultural College

FRIDAY, MAY 3.

7:00 p. m.-Business meeting of Phi Beta Kappa in Williams Science hall; 8:00 m., Julia Spear prize reading in the Billings library.

SATURDAY, MAY 4. 9:00 a. m.-Senior class walk: 1:30 p. m. neeting of the trustees at the College of Medicine; 1:30 p. m., annual meeting of Phi Beta Kappa in room 23 north, old college; 3:00 p. m., class day exercises with Founders' day address in the gym-nasium; 5:00 p. m., fraternity receptions at the fraternity houses; 8:00 p. m., the president's reception at the Billings library; 9:00 p. m., senior promenade at the Billings library. SUNDAY, MAY 5. in the gymnasium; 7:30 p. m., concert and Beatrice Forbes-Robertson Hale in the 9:00 a. m .- Meeting of the trustees in the Marsh library; 10:00 a. m., exercises of the 114th commencement at the gymnasium, address by Dr. M. B. Hillega State commissioner of education for Vermont, conferring of degrees; 2:30 p. m., annual meeting of the associate alumni in the chapel; 2:30 p. m., class reunions at appointed places; 6:00 p. m., informal of the alumni at Hotel Verm 9:00 p. m., fraternity reunions at the fra-

BODIES NOT FOUND

Searchers Unable to Locate Remains of John Crowley and Perrault Companion That the remains of John Crowley and Perrault Companion, two of the three victims whose lives were snuffed out in the fire that destroyed the plant of the Vermont Milk Chocolate company last Thursday night, may not be found for some days yet, if indeed at all, became quite evident late yesterday afternoon when the crew of men the Chocolate company has at work on the ruins had nearly completed the work of turning over the debris without a trace of the Health Officer F. J. Ennis, who has been unceasing in his labors to have the sioned officer who may properly be bodies of the men located, to appease the brought before it, is First Lieutenant anguish of the nearly distracted relatives, Joseph A. Ciminera, an honor graduate made two trips to the scene of the fire of the University of Vermont college of yesterday, the last one late in the afterby Edward Crowley, brother of the missing John Crowley, and he was met at the ruins by two brothers of the late Per-

Dr. Ennis went over with one of the were last seen alive and where their bodies were supposed to lie, provided they were killed outright by one of the two explosions that occurred previous to

There is still a possibility that the bodies of the men have not been incinerated. This might be so were they under the heavy machinery that lies twisted heap in the basement. If such is the case, then the bodies will not be extricated from their present resting place until a wrecking crew which the chocolate people purpose bringing from Boston arrives and gets at the work of cleaning out the mass of steel and

DO YOU KNOW

(From the Troy Times) That the normal pulse should beat from 8 to 86 per minute? That respiration runs from 18 to 24 minute in the healthy person? That the armpit will register fever quicker than the face or hands? That the normal temperature should not rise above 98 3-5 by a clinical thern

That a coated tongue means trouble also a red and glossy tongue? That the whites of the eyes should be clear in a healthy person? If not, you had better begin to absorb such information, because the home nurse is going to be called upon more than ever these days to take up the duties fo which professional nurses were once

OBITUARY

Frederick G. Brownell

The body of Frederick G. Brownell, whose death occurred at Malden, Mass., Wednesday, April 24, was brought here Friday morning and taken to Williston for interment. Mr. Brownell, who was 80 years old last August 25, was born in Williston. He is survived by two daughters and one son. A brother, S. E. Brownell, resides in this city. The funeral services were held at Malden Thursday afternoon.

William G. Weller

News was received in this city Friday of the death of William G. Weller at home in Syracuse, N. Y., Thursday night. Following prayer service at his late home the body was brought to this city for interment in Lake View cemetery Saturday afternoon. There was a prayer service at the grave immediately upon the arrival of the funeral party. Mr. Weller, traveling salesman through this section or many years, is survived by a brother, R. E. Weller; two nieces, Mrs. Gilbert Rist and Miss Bessie H. Weller, all of this city; and by three nephews, E. B. Weller of Syracuse, N. Y., W. A. Weller of El-wood, Neb., and Frank B. Weller of Seattle, Wash. .

John A. Cockle

The funeral of John A. Cockle, whose leath occurred early Friday morning, was held on Sunday afternoon at one o'clock at the Methodist Church, with burial in Hinesburg. Mr. Cockle had been in ill health for a long time and died at his home at 75 Bank street. For some years he had been janitor at the county court building, but had to resign some months ago because of failing health.

Mrs. Margaret Lafayette Mrs. Margaret Lafayett died at her some at 15 Pine street Friday morning after a short illness. She was born in Cherubusco, N. Y., 47 years ago: She is is in the United States army, and is now in Edgewood, Md., and Ralph W. of this city; by a mother and five brothers of Cheru-Cassidy of St. Anthony, P. Q. Mrs. La-Mary's parish, a member of St. Ann'e so ciety and the League of the Sacred Heart,

The remains were taken to the home of her mother in Cherubusco, N. Y., on the 4:30 train Saturday morning, the funeral being held there on Monday.

Samuel D. Manor

also a member of St. Mary's Court, C

News has been received of the death of Samuel D. Manor at his home in Lima, Ohio. Mr. Manor was for some time connected with Arbuckle & Co. in this city and became famous as a candy-maker. He later helped start the Crystal Confectionery company. From here he moved to Elmira, N. Y., where he helped establish the plant known as the Booth Chocolate Works. Then his health failed and he moved to Lima, Ohlo, where he died after a lingering illness of bright's disease. He is survived by his wife and one daughter; also by one sister, Mrs. L. W. Ravlin of Winooski, and a niece, Mrs. F. M. Coon of Burlington.

Mrs. Clara R. Pease

Mrs. Clara R. Pease died Tuesday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. A. Lewis in Charlotte. Mrs. 90 years old. The funeral will be held this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock from the home of her daughter, and the burial will be in Charlotte cemetery.

Frank Ritchie

Frank Ritchie died at his home on Convent Square Tuesday afternoon at :30 o'clock after a long and lingering illness. He was 40 years old. He was many friends in the city. He was the first of ten children to die. Besides his wife he is survived by four children. 4:00 p. m.-Baccalaureate service with Adouphus, aged 13, Frank, aged 12, Mildermon by the Rev. Dr. W. H. Hopkins dred, aged 7, and Richard, aged 6; by a mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ritchie; by three sistters, Mrs. Fred Bacon and Mrs. Frank White-house of Burlington and Mrs. Robert Monroe of Shelburne, and by six brothers, Charles, William, Fred, Napoleon and Edward of Burlington and Joseph The funeral will be held in St oseph's Church this morning. Burial will be in Mt. Calvary cemetery.

SUIT OVER A FARM

Stephen Riggs of Essex Claims Misrepresentation by Earl Prior of Cambridge Stephen Riggs of Essex believes Earl Prior of Cambridge lied to him in when the Essex man purchased a farm represented to be free from bushes, brakes

Because he is so infinitely sure that prevaricated at the time stated, Riggs has started an action of tort against nim and seeks to recover the sum of $5,000 Costs of the case are also asked. The office yesterday. It will come up for trial at the September term of Chittende county court. In reality the action concerns the farm and personal property lying in the towns of Westford and Essex, but the real bone of contention is the farm-and the bushes Prior owned in 1917, and which had two longed to the Champlain Trust company for $3,500, the other belonging to L. and Sarah Ravlin of South Burlington. Mr. Riggs says that upon solicitation Mr. Prior he paid the sum of $14,500 for the farm and personal property, and as a payment on the purchase price he deeded to defendant Prior his farm in Essex, with the personal property, the equity of which was agreed to be $2,800. Besides, he agreed

Now Riggs is sore at Prior for stating finest quality, besides saying that it was ly productive. Also is the plaintiff sore that the farm could easily winter and sides horses and other stock-all of which representations he claims were falsely and deceitfully made.

o assume both the foregoing mortgages.

and he also delivered to the defendant the

REPORTS SHOW PROGRESS Annual Meeting of Woman's Associa tion of First Church

The annual meeting of the Woman's at the parish house yesterday after-noon. Mrs. W. T. Scofield presiding. The reports of the secretary and treasurer and different committees were given and showed great progress. The report of the treasurer showed that the society during the year had earned $792.99. There is at the present time special carpet fund showed that there was $855 in the bank for that fund The missionary box committee reported that they had packed three boxes of total value of over $400 and sent them to Bottleford, Ga., Fort Collins, Colo. and Pleasant Valley, Tenn.

The following officers were elected: of Middlebury was elected secret President, Miss Henrietta M. Wood: treasurer.

first vice-president, Mrs. F. W. Perry; Three standing committees were

The Old Bee Hibe

May 2, 1918

The Store that Sells Betty Wales Dresses Is the Store that Insists On Quality

BETTY WALES dressmakers are too proud of their product to let it be sold everywhere. Only one store in a city may carry these famous dresses. And that one is selected for its reputation for quality-mer-

In every detail, Betty Wales Dresses measure up to our standard. Customers constantly remark on the exceptional material and fine tailoring given. Cleverly designed and expertly fashioned, Betty Wales Dresses need less alterations than other dresses and they hold their style longer. Betty Wales Dresses are easy to get into, and as one busy little lady said, "a pleasure to stay in-you feel so smartly dressed all the while."

Every Betty Wales Serge or Silk Dress is fitted with Kleinert's Gem Dress Shields sewed in place-an example of the careful attention given to detail.

Betty Wales Dresses are made on the simple, chic lines that will give the wearer, whatever her age, a youthful trim figure.

Only the genuine Betty Wales Dresses bear the Ploshkin label. Look for it.

Dress No. 11

Is a navy serge that will renew one's youth. Joffre blue trims the collar and belt; novelty bone but-tons are used freely and the pockets are really serviceable. Priced $23.50

Dress No. 6

A full plaited skirt with blouse handsomely embroidered in gold and navy silk, makes this an exceedingly smart serge dress. Collar of white satin, novelty bone buttons. Navy only. Priced $22.50

Dress No. 39

Lack of ornamentation gives this dress added style. Made of Puppy Skin taffeta with graceful side drapery and a straight belt with ends. Crisp linen collar and cuffs are smartly girlish. Comes in navy, Belgian and re-seda green. Priced $25.00

Dress No. 26

Smart and sweet as only a Betty Wales can be. Bolero jacket flares full over a saucy girdle of rose satin, matching trimming on cuffs and pockets. Collar of white satin. Comes in navy plaid silk.

Dress No. 34

A lustrous Puppy Skin silk with pongee finely tucked for vestee but left plain for collar. High neckline finished with bow of rich brown velvet ribbon. Chic, indeed. Comes in navy, Belgian or reseda green. Priced $29.75

Dress No. 14

A roguishly youthful serge with vestee, collar and cuffs of pincheck gingham (in blue or pink). Novelty buttons to harmonize. Windsor tie Navy only. Priced $18.75

Dress No. 8

The authoritative style-touch of Betty Wales may be seen in this navy serge. The bolero jacket straps cross-wise over handsome belt of natural beads of red and black. White satin collar. Navy only. Priced $22.50

Dress No. 35

Betty Wales works wonders with pongee, when she bands it with colored silk. Kimona sleeve is three-quarter length with trimmed cuff of silk matching bands on waist and skirt. In pongee trimmed with Copenhagen or brown. Priced $22.50

Dress No. 25 Especially girlish is this springtime blue and white checked Puppy Skin silk. Its smart Eton jacket fastens in front over belt of blue satin. Shirred pockets, collar and cuffs of embroidered. batiste. Price, $25.00

Dress No. 101

One of the newest silk ginghams. Side tabs on skirt are gathered and finished with tassel. Organdie collar; vestee is tucked and button trimmed. Made in rose, reseda and copen. Priced 824.75 on; secretary, Mrs. T. S. Brown; as sistant secretary, Mrs. F. C. Evans: reasurer, Mrs. F. H. Brown; assistant reasurer, Mrs. F. E. McIntosh; auditor, Miss Jessie S. Grandy; department of local work, directors, Mrs. R. J. Horton and Mrs. C. A. Jackson; department of of Rutland, J. L. Sanford of Tilton, N. H., foreign missions, director, Mrs. C. L. W. L. Bowser and M. B. Turner, both of Smith; assistant director, Miss Florence Boston. Lyman; secretary, Mrs. F. K. Jackson reasurer, Mrs. R. L. Patrick; department of home missions, director, Mrs leorge L. l'ease; assistant director, Mrs. L. H. Chapin; secretary, Mrs. J. E. Colburn; treasurer, Mrs. R. D. Lewis; assistant treasurer, Mrs. Max L. Powchairman of committees, finance, Mrs. E .D. Worthen, Mrs. E. H. Martin and Mrs. Gardner Brewer; devotional. Optical company of Boston gave an ad-Mrs. W. J. Van Patten: chairman of dress on "Transposition of Lenses." missionary boxes committee, Miss Lulu Osgood: chairman of brotherhood in Rutland on Wednesday, May 14, 1919. pers committee, Mrs. S. L. Reynolds

STATE OPTICIANS

chairman of hospitality committee, Mrs

H. O. Taft.

Fifty in Attendance at Annual Meeting at New Sherwood Yesterday

Approximately 50 members of the Ver mont State Optical society and their ladies attended the ninth annual meeting at the New Sherwood Hotel yesterday. were three sessions, the opening one being in the morning and the closing one being banquet and dance in the evening President Cola J. Cleveland of Rutland was in the chair.

At the morning session the annual address of President Cleveland was given, followed by an address by W. E. Munday of the Globe Optical company of Boston on "Advertising." Then followed luncheon. The afternoon session opened at two o'clock with an address by L. P. Folsom, 'Systemic Disorders and the Manner in Which They Affect the Eye." Then fol lowed the election. R. W. Parish of Bur-lington was elected president for the ensuing year, with Mrs. W. S. Humphrey of Northfield as first vice-president and Laurence P. Folsom of South Royalton as second vice-president. Dr. A. D. Barter of Middlebury was elected secretary-pointed, as follows: Executive committee O. F. Prentiss of Burlington, O. E. Scott of Waterbury and A. B. Saul of Woodstock; legislative committee, A. G. Mansur of Burlington, A. R. Campbell of land; membership committee, F. A. Slater W. L. Bowser and M. B. Turner, both of

Following the election an address was given by Dr. A. D. Barter of Middlebury on "Co-operation, Manufacturer, Jobber and Retailer." That closed the afternoon seven o'clock with a banquet. R. W. Parish, the president-elect, was installed in his official position, Gerdon D. Talbert of the Burlington branch of the Globe The tenth annual meeting will be held

A DAY IN PROBATE COURT Settlements and decrees were made in probate court Tuesday in the estates of Alfred Farmer, late of Colchester, Alice R. Rugg and Franklin B. Rugg. both late of Milton. Henry W. Tracy and Andrew J. Hut-of Cyrus P. Van Vliet, late of Shelburne. J. E. Wolcott of Colchester was appointed administrator with the will annexed in the estate of Frank La Marche.

late of Colchester.

missioners and appraisers in the estate

NATIONAL LEAGUE STA	NDIN	G.
Won.	Lost.	Pet.
New York11	1	.91
Philadelphia 8	4	.66
'hicago 6	3	.66
Incinnati 7	6	.53
Pittsburg 4	3	.44
t. Louis 4	8	.33
Boston 3	9	.25
3rooklyn 2	10	.16
AMERICAN LEAGUE STA	NDIN	0.
Wan	T.out	-

Cleveland Chicago New York Washington Detroit

.636 .635 .463 .417 .400